SCHOOL

JOHN 8:3

THE TRUTH
WILL SET
YOU free

¡WELCOME TO THE LEVEL UP SCHOOL OF COMUNIDAD CRISTIANA EMANUEL!

We're embarking on a journey of spiritual growth and learning together, and we're excited to be part of this journey with you. Our desire is that, through this school, you will gain a deeper understanding of God's Word and a stronger relationship with Him.

John 8:31–32 NLT

³¹ Jesus said to the people who believed in him, “You are truly my disciples if you remain faithful to my teachings. ³² And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

Jesus urges those who believe in him to “Know the truth.” This involves accepting God's truth as revealed in the Bible and in Jesus, and living according to it, freeing ourselves from sin and everything that threatens the fullness of life God desires for us to live.

On the other hand, the Bible says:

Hosea 4:6 NIV

My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge...

Today, there is a latent threat to the faith and truth of God. Through worldliness and humanistic and diabolical trends, the devil seeks to keep human beings in slavery and destroy them. We must not allow this!

Today, more than ever, we must delve into the Scriptures and defend their teachings. Walking in the freedom and spiritual fulfillment that lead to eternal life depends on this.

The LEVEL UP SCHOOL seeks to contribute to this purpose.

Let us come with open minds and hearts, ready to learn, listen, and grow together.

Life is better in COMMUNITUY!

EVANGELISM

Evangelism is the act of sharing the good news of Jesus Christ with others: the message that, through his life, death, and resurrection, all people can receive forgiveness, new life, and eternal hope. It is not simply a religious duty, but a loving response to what God has done for us. Evangelism grows out of gratitude and compassion; when we truly experience God's grace, we naturally desire others to experience the same joy and freedom.

For us today, Evangelism means living and speaking in a way that points people to Christ. It is more than preaching: it is showing God's love through our everyday actions, relationships, and conversations. In a world searching for meaning, peace, and belonging, our witness can be a light that draws others to hope.

Evangelism is important because eternity is real, and God's desire is for all to come to know him. Jesus commanded his followers, "Go and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19). When we share our faith, we join God's mission to redeem the world. Evangelism reminds us that our faith should not be private, but should shine forth, transforming lives, communities, and generations with the power of the gospel.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to train believers in the art of relational evangelism. You will learn to communicate your faith in an authentic, personal, and consistent way, being yourself while remaining effective.

We will explore how to build meaningful relationships with non-believers, how to maintain conversations that deepen faith, how to tell your story of transformation, how to explain the gospel message clearly, and how to help others take the step toward faith in Christ. The topics will include:

- 1. The Great Omission
- 2. Know the Message
- 3. Relational Evangelism
- 4. Styles of Evangelism

RELEVANCE TO LIFE

This course not only seeks to teach evangelism techniques, but also to transform the way each believer lives and shares their faith on a daily basis. Through the teachings, participants will learn to integrate their Christian witness naturally into their personal life, work, and family relationships.

The course will help strengthen security in their faith, develop a more coherent and authentic spiritual life, and discover the joy of positively influencing others for Christ. It will also foster personal growth in areas such as empathy, effective communication, sensitivity to the spiritual needs of others, and the courage to live with purpose and conviction.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of the course, participants will be able to: (1) Understand the Christian call to share the gospel and the benefits of living as a contagious Christian. (2) Identify their personal evangelism style and how it can integrate with their character and context. (3) Develop deep and authentic relationships with people who do not yet know Christ, applying principles of closeness (proximity) and spiritual power. (4) Tell their own faith story in a simple, honest, and meaningful way. (5) Explain the biblical truth of the gospel in clear and applicable language. (6) Facilitate a conversation that invites others to cross the line of faith, and have the confidence to pray with them in that moment.

COURSE FORMAT

WEEK 1: THE GREAT OMISSION

Connect emotionally and spiritually with the urgent need to evangelize, showing the global, local, and personal reality.

WEEK 2: KNOW THE MESSAGE

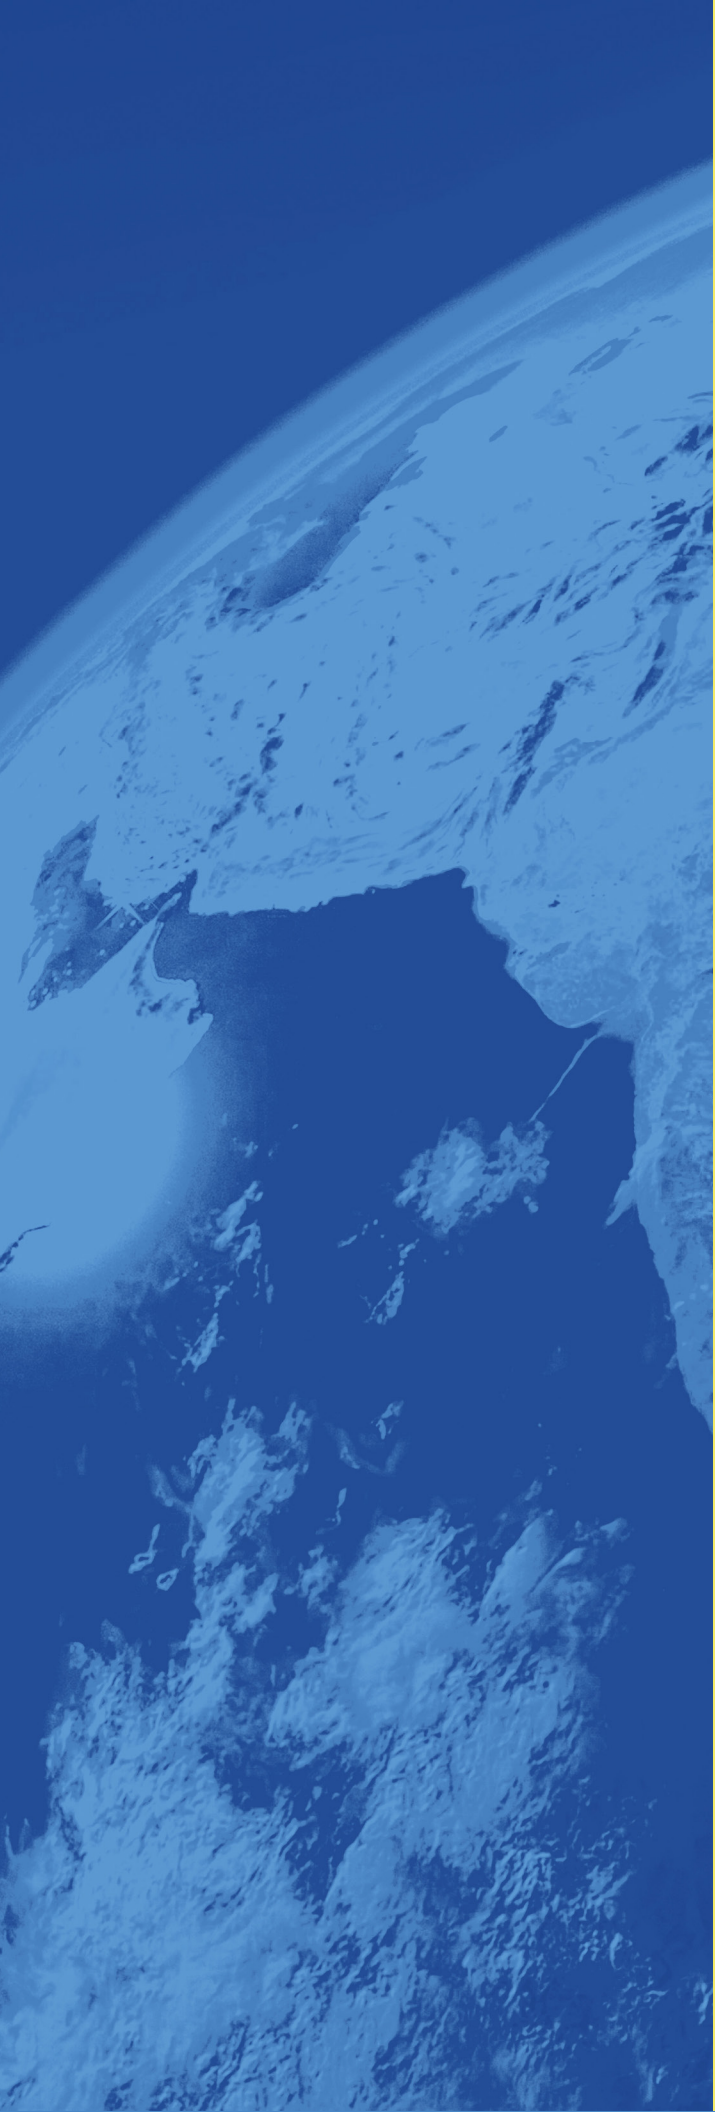

Understand, internalize, and clearly communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ, not just as a series of facts, but as a transformative message born from the heart of God and transmitted from a life impacted by Him.

WEEK 3: RELATIONAL EVANGELISM

Understand and practice evangelism as a natural extension of your personal relationships, learning to build genuine bridges toward unbelievers with sensitivity, compassion, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

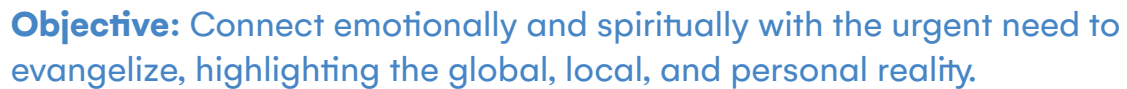

WEEK 4: STYLES OF EVANGELISM

Identify their natural evangelism style, understanding that God uses different ways to draw people to Him. Learn to recognize their “personal seal” when sharing Christ, and discover how to be effective and authentic in their witnessing, with freedom, sensitivity, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

THE GREAT OMISSION

The forgotten value that defines the heart of the Church.

18 Jesus came and told his disciples, “I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth. 19 Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations,[a] baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. 20 Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

And then he told them, “Go into all the world and preach the Good News to everyone.

The Great Commission reminds us of two things that we must always keep in mind:

- [illegible]

Why has the Great Commission become the Great Omission?

1. _____

This is the generation that is both most _____ and most _____.

Romans 10:14 NIV

How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them?

This generation is looking for _____.

Most Christians have lost their sense of urgency. They seem to have forgotten that the eternal lives of everyone around us are at stake.

Many have _____ of Christ, but have not _____ Christ reflected in a _____.

2. _____

What evangelism is not:

- _____

The goal is to _____ his _____ in the world to fulfill the purpose recorded in Mark 1:17.

Mark 1:17 GW

Jesus said to them, "Come, follow me! I will teach you how to catch people instead of fish."

- _____
- _____

The word evangelism literally means "_____." The first to share the news of Jesus' birth were not _____ or church _____. _____ men were the first bearers of the gospel.

- _____

It is the _____ and _____ overflow of a deep and permanent _____ with Christ. Evangelism isn't something you do. It's who you are.

- _____

Acts 8:4 NLT

But the believers who were scattered preached the Good News about Jesus wherever they went.

Every believer was a _____, carrying the message everywhere.

We're not all Billy Grahams, but we can all share our story with sincerity and love. Effective evangelism is about connection, not perfection.

Acts 1:8 NIV

But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.

There are things that look the same but aren't. When we don't have a _____ understanding of what _____ means, we can do _____ and achieve _____.

What evangelism is:

The word "Evangelism" comes from the Greek word "Evangelidzo" and means "_____." In a practical sense, evangelism "_____"

It is the presentation of Jesus Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit, so that men may come to trust in Him as Savior, and to serve Him as Lord in the fellowship of His church.

William Temple, Christian Life, 1968

Evangelism is:

- Action → _____
- Power → _____
- Purpose → _____
- Results → _____

Evangelism is _____ the life of _____. The gospel is not what God _____; it's what God _____ us. We give the life of Christ to people, like when you introduce a _____.

John 3:16 NIV

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

Evangelism is like one hungry beggar telling another hungry beggar where there is bread.

Charles Spurgeon

3. _____

Only when the gospel is a _____ flame _____ us can it become a shining _____ for _____.

Romans 1:16 NLT

For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes—the Jew first and also the Gentile.

Contagious people are deeply convinced that the message they carry is the best anyone can receive.

The gospel is not just a _____ to _____; it is a _____ that _____ lives. It is not a philosophy, it is a _____—Jesus Christ.

Before we are preachers of the gospel, let us be _____ of the gospel.
Before we go out into the world, let us _____ into its presence.

_____ evangelism is born when the gospel stops being just a _____ and becomes _____ story.

[illegible]

4. _____

John 15:18 NLT

If the world hates you, remember that it hated me first.

Matthew 10:28

Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather, be afraid of the One who can destroy both soul and body in hell.

Luke 9:26

Whoever is ashamed of me and my words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of them when he comes in his glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

Evangelism is not about winning arguments, but about winning hearts.

Fear may _____ you, but love should _____ you.

How to overcome the fear of evangelizing?

- _____

2 Timothy 1:7 NLT

For God has not given us a spirit of fear and timidity, but of power, love, and self-discipline.

- _____

Ephesians 6:19 NLT

And pray for me, too. Ask God to give me the right words so I can boldly explain God's mysterious plan that the Good News is for Jews and Gentiles alike.

• _____

Acts 4:20 NLT

We cannot stop telling about everything we have seen and heard.

• _____

2 Corinthians 4:7 NIV

But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us.

• _____

1 John 4:18 NIV

There is no fear in love. But perfect love drives out fear.

• _____

People are more open to listening when they have first been listened to.

• _____

• _____

Luke 10:16 NIV

Whoever listens to you listens to me; whoever rejects you rejects me;

If we want to fulfill the Great Commission, we must follow in his footsteps:

- Light was made for _____, not to _____ with other lights.

[illegible]

6. _____

Luke 19:10 NLT

For the Son of Man came to seek and save those who are lost.

A church that does not evangelize is contradicting its nature and purpose _____ doesn't need _____ to advance; it only needs the _____ to remain _____.

John Stott

We must remember _____ we are, _____ we are here, and _____ we live for.

Revelation 2:4 NIV

Yet I hold this against you: You have forsaken the love you had at first.

The key to contagious evangelism is to fall in love with Jesus again and love the people for whom He died.

Evangelizing is not just what we _____, but who we _____.

Reflection questions:

When was the last time you shared the gospel with someone?

What is your greatest fear or difficulty in evangelizing?

Who do you know today who needs Jesus?

Why do you think many Christians today don't evangelize?

What personal barriers do you face in sharing your faith?

How many people have you led to Christ in the last 12 months?

How many times have you prayed, “Lord, use me to reach someone”?

Why do we keep quiet when we know we have the answer?

Challenges for the week: Memorize a key to the Gospel. Choose one of these passages and memorize it to use in your conversations. 1 Corinthians 15:3-4, Romans 5:8, John 3:16, Acts 3:19

KNOW THE MESSAGE

A deep look at the core of the gospel.

Objective: That the student understands, internalizes, and can clearly communicate the gospel of Jesus Christ, not only as a series of facts, but as a transformative message born from the heart of God and transmitted from a life impacted by Him.

1 Corinthians 15:1–4 NLT

1 Let me now remind you, dear brothers and sisters,[a] of the Good News I preached to you before. You welcomed it then, and you still stand firm in it. 2 It is this Good News that saves you if you continue to believe the message I told you—unless, of course, you believed something that was never true in the first place. 3 I passed on to you what was most important and what had also been passed on to me. Christ died for our sins, just as the Scriptures said. 4 He was buried, and he was raised from the dead on the third day, just as the Scriptures said.

Evangelizing isn't about sharing _____—it's about sharing _____. The Gospel isn't just _____ that's passed on—it's an _____ that's lived and spread.

Contagious people are deeply convinced that the message they carry is the best anyone can receive.

The most _____ people at sharing their faith are those who deeply _____ in the message they _____. Evangelizing is not just about _____, but also about _____ the message that transformed our lives.

One of the most common _____ in evangelism is speaking with _____, but with little _____.

The message begins with an uncomfortable truth: _____. And it culminates with a glorious truth: _____.

If we don't fully understand the _____, we'll never appreciate the _____. And if we don't fully understand the _____, we'll have nothing _____ to offer the world.

1. _____

The problem with human beings is not only their _____, but their _____ condition.

Romans 3:23 NIV

for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God

Sin not only makes us _____, it leaves us short, incomplete, unable to reach what we were created to reflect; that is, the glory of God.

In the biblical context, _____ is not simply breaking a rule, but living as if God has no authority. This is the heart of sin; not an _____ mistake, but an attitude of rebellion against God.

How to overcome the fear of evangelizing?

- _____

Mark 7:20–23 NLT

20 And then he added, "It is what comes from inside that defiles you. 21 For from within, out of a person's heart, come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, 22 adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, envy, slander, pride, and foolishness. 23 All these vile things come from within; they are what defile you."

Sin doesn't begin with _____—it begins in the _____. It's an internal _____ that produces external _____.

- _____

John 3:19 NIV

This is the verdict: Light has come into the world, but people loved darkness instead of light because their deeds were evil.

It's looking at the God who loves you and telling Him through your _____—I don't need you. The most tragic thing about sin isn't what it does to _____, but what it _____ between us and _____.

- _____

Ephesians 2:10 NLT

For we are God's masterpiece. He has created us anew in Christ Jesus, so we can do the good things he planned for us long ago.

To sin is to live _____, wasting our lives on things that don't matter for _____. It is to _____ God's original design for us. We are not sinners because we _____; we sin because we are _____.

Calling sin by another name doesn't make it _____ offensive to God, only more _____ to man. When we minimize _____, we also minimize _____.

The first step for someone to receive the _____ is for them to understand why they _____ it.

Many people are not ready to receive the solution because they have not recognized the problem.

We do not preach sin to _____ the world, but to open the door to the _____.

John 3:17 NIV

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.

2. _____

No one is satisfied with just knowing their _____; they need a _____.

Romans 5:8–11 NLT

8 But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners. 9 And since we have been made right in God’s sight by the blood of Christ, he will certainly save us from God’s condemnation. 10 For since our friendship with God was restored by the death of his Son while we were still his enemies, we will certainly be saved through the life of his Son. 11 So now we can rejoice in our wonderful new relationship with God because our Lord Jesus Christ has made us friends of God.

Contagious people are deeply convinced that the message they carry is the best anyone can receive.

• _____

On the _____, Jesus not only died for you, he died in your _____.

Isaiah 53:5

But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed.

The cross wasn’t an _____. It was an _____.

- _____

Jesus did not come to _____ us the way—He is the _____.

1 Timothy 2:5 NIV

For there is one God and one mediator between God and mankind, the man Christ Jesus

Romans 5:1 NLT

Therefore, since we have been made right in God's sight by faith, we have peace with God because of what Jesus Christ our Lord has done for us.

- _____

John 8:34 y 36 NIV

34 Jesus replied, "Very truly I tell you, everyone who sins is a slave to sin. 36 So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.

Christ did not come to give you a _____, but _____.

- _____

Following Jesus involves a radical change, not only in our eternal destiny, but in our daily direction.

Matthew 16:24 NIV

Then Jesus said to his disciples, "Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me.

Salvation isn't just about reaching _____; it's about learning to _____ with Jesus here on _____.

Don't keep the _____ that can heal _____ to yourself. No matter how _____ a person has come, God's _____ can always reach them.

3. _____

2 Corinthians 5:11 NLT

Because we understand our fearful responsibility to the Lord, we work hard to persuade others. God knows we are sincere, and I hope you know this, too.

Behind the word “_____” lies a true spiritual and emotional struggle.

If we want to help others accept Christ, we must learn to discern, through the Spirit, what those _____ are that prevent them from opening their _____ to Jesus.

- _____

Proverbs 14:12 NIV

There is a way that appears to be right, but in the end it leads to death.

Deuteronomy 33:27 NIV

The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms.

To spread faith, we must live a faith that is firm, sincere, and contagious, one that does not conform to the false idols of this world.

A misguided faith doesn’t need _____, it needs _____ direction, a true foundation—Christ. It’s not enough to tell people they’re _____. We have to _____ them there’s something infinitely better.

• _____
In this confusing world, _____ is measured by what you _____, not what you are.

Romans 12:2 GW

Don't become like the people of this world. Instead, change the way you think. Then you will always be able to determine what God really wants—what is good, pleasing, and perfect.

Salmo 16:11 NIV

You make known to me the path of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence, with eternal pleasures at your right hand.

The key to being a contagious Christian is to see with the eyes of Christ, value what He values, and help others do the same.

• _____
Jesus is knocking at the door _____ (Revelation 3:20), not _____.

Hebrews 3:15 NLT

Remember what it says: Today when you hear his voice, don't harden your hearts as Israel did when they rebelled.

A contagious Christian doesn't force things, but does show urgency. The time is now, because God's love doesn't wait forever.

1 John 4:18 NLT

Such love has no fear, because perfect love expels all fear.

Romans 8:37 NIV

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.

John 14:27 NIV

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

Psalms 56:3 NLT

But when I am afraid, I will put my trust in you.

Evangelism isn't just for the brave, but for the obedient. Don't let fear paralyze your mission. The power of the Holy Spirit overcomes any fear.

The Hand of Salvation:

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

Acts 3:19 NIV

Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord,

Evangelism is love in action, an invitation that comes from the heart of God through our lives.

The gospel we share is not just any message; it is the good news that changes lives and revives hearts. Living it and sharing it is our greatest privilege and responsibility.

We must learn how to communicate that message with _____, _____, and _____, so that our lives may be a true reflection of that transformative gospel.

If I spread the Good News, I have nothing to brag about because I have an obligation to do this. How horrible it will be for me if I don't spread the Good News!

A church that does not _____ the message it preaches only repeats _____ phrases.

Contagious people are convinced that the message they carry is the best thing anyone could receive.

When the gospel burns _____ you, you can't keep it _____.

If we want to fulfill the _____ again, we must return to the _____ of the message.

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Reflection questions:

Which part of the gospel do you find most difficult to share with others: talking about sin or talking about salvation? Why?

How has understanding that Jesus died not only for you, but in your place, personally impacted your life?

Do you think the people you live with recognize their need for salvation?

How can you help them see the seriousness of sin without judging them?

What does it mean to you that Jesus is your mediator and not just your savior?

How does knowing that Jesus is your Lord, not just your savior, change your daily life?

What excuse or barrier most prevents you from sharing your faith? Fear? Lack of knowledge? Fear of rejection?

Who can you intentionally begin to accompany more closely this week to guide them toward Jesus?

RELATIONAL EVANGELISM

Qualities of evangelism through personal relationships.

Objective: That participants understand and practice evangelism as a natural extension of their personal relationships, learning to build genuine bridges to non-believers with sensitivity, compassion, and guidance from the Holy Spirit.

2 Corintios 5:18–20 NLT

18 And all of this is a gift from God, who brought us back to himself through Christ. And God has given us this task of reconciling people to him. 19 For God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, no longer counting people's sins against them. And he gave us this wonderful message of reconciliation. 20 So we are Christ's ambassadors; God is making his appeal through us. We speak for Christ when we plead, "Come back to God!"

God didn't just give us a _____, He gave us _____ that we interact with all the time.

The type of relational evangelism shown in John 1:45—46 still works today. Why?

- _____
- _____
- _____

The Gospel must be seen in your _____ before it is _____ in your _____.

The Gospel travels best when _____ among _____.

Relational evangelism is about building bridges with people to lead them to Christ, step by step.

The gospel travels _____ and _____ when it is transported in the vehicle of an authentic _____.

2 Corintios 5:18-20 NLT

18 And all of this is a gift from God, who brought us back to himself through Christ. And God has given us this task of reconciling people to him. 19 For God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, no longer counting people's sins against them. And he gave us this wonderful message of reconciliation. 20 So we are Christ's ambassadors; God is making his appeal through us. We speak for Christ when we plead, "Come back to God!"

Relational evangelism doesn't begin with a _____, but with a cup of _____, a _____, and a loving _____. The most _____ evangelism doesn't always happen from a pulpit, but from a shared _____.

Contagious evangelism almost always flows through the network of natural relationships that people already have.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are approximately 20 lines visible. The paper has a slight shadow on its right side, suggesting it's resting on a surface.

1. _____

You can reach people that others would never have reached, simply because they _____ with you, with your _____, with your way of _____.

The most powerful evangelism does not always come from the pulpit, but from a consistent life lived among the people.

Words open _____, but testimony opens _____. _____ is not a strategy—it is the reflection of a _____ life.

Christians are to be good news before they share the good news.

Joe Aldrich

Matthew 5:16 NIV

In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

Many people not only seek the authenticity of the _____, but also the _____ of those who _____ it.

The world around you doesn't need more _____. It needs more authentic _____.

Contagious people are real. They don't try to put on a front, they don't boast of holiness; they simply let the transformation of Christ speak for itself.

_____ opens hearts. And when people see a _____ life in you, they'll be ready to _____ the message that transformed your life.

2. _____

Evangelizing isn't about _____ speeches or _____ methods. It's about letting your relationship with God flow naturally in your _____, your _____, your way of _____, and your way of _____.

Matthew 5:15–16 NLT

15 No one lights a lamp and then puts it under a basket. Instead, a lamp is placed on a stand, where it gives light to everyone in the house. 16 In the same way, let your good deeds shine out for all to see, so that everyone will praise your heavenly Father.

When you evangelize from your true _____, people not only feel _____, they feel _____ that what you share is _____.

God has given you a unique personality, experiences, and valuable relationships. You don't have to stop being yourself to share your faith; on the contrary, He wants to use you just as you are.

You don't need to stop being _____ to share your faith; on the contrary, God wants to use you just as you _____. Of course, some of us need to be molded, but God doesn't change your _____, He only _____ it to reflect more of Him.

3. _____

- _____
- _____

More and more, people aren't looking for more _____—they're looking for _____. People open their hearts to those who take the time to _____ down, _____ them in the eye, and _____ without judgment.

Matthew 9:10–12 NIV

10 While Jesus was having dinner at Matthew's house, many tax collectors and sinners came and ate with him and his disciples. 11 When the Pharisees saw this, they asked his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" 12 On hearing this, Jesus said, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick.

Relational evangelism does not begin with a _____, but with a _____.

Evangelizing personally involves:

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

The strongest faith is born from _____ conversations and _____ relationships.

1 Thessalonians 2:8 NLT

We loved you so much that we shared with you not only God's Good News but our own lives, too.

God didn't send a _____ from heaven. He came in _____.

Relational evangelism is based on a powerful principle: truth travels faster on the rails of relationship. People are rarely convinced by arguments, but they can be moved by genuine friendship.

We often think that evangelizing is about knowing “_____.” But the most transformative thing is knowing when to be _____, when to _____, and when to simply be _____.

4. _____

The gospel needs legs to _____, but also a voice to _____.

Romans 10:14 NLT

But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in him? And how can they believe in him if they have never heard about him? And how can they hear about him unless someone tells them?

Actions open the _____. But words bring _____. Actions _____ that the gospel is real. Words _____ why the gospel is real.

- _____
- _____
- _____

A silent faith can be an invisible faith.
Effective evangelism finds a way to unite the integrity of a consistent life with the clarity of verbal explanation.

Mark Mittelberg

5. _____

Relational evangelism is not a _____, but a _____ walk at the pace of the Holy Spirit and each person.

Some studies estimate that the average person needs to hear the gospel between ____ and ____ times before making a genuine decision.

1 Corinthians 3:6 NLT

I planted the seed in your hearts, and Apollos watered it, but it was God who made it grow.

Our task is not to rush into decisions, but to _____ faithfully and _____ with patience, knowing that the deepest work is done by _____, in His perfect time.

When you interact with someone who does not yet know Christ:

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

1 Corinthians 3:6 NIV

I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God has been making it grow.

It is about cooperating with the _____, who is the one who truly _____, _____, and _____.

1 Corinthians 2:4 NIV

My message and my preaching were not with wise and persuasive words, but with a demonstration of the Spirit's power

Effective evangelism is a team effort between the sensitive believer and the guiding Holy Spirit.

- _____

Before talking to people _____ God, talk ____ God about those people first.

- _____

The Holy Spirit moves powerfully when there is _____ and _____ in the community.

Luke 10:1 NIV

After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go.

Working with others is _____ and deeply _____. Unity is not just efficient, it's _____.

In community, there is _____, _____, shared _____, and greater _____.

John 17:21 GW

I pray that all of these people continue to have unity in the way that you, Father, are in me and I am in you. I pray that they may be united with us so that the world will believe that you have sent me.

_____ is not a luxury, it is a _____ from heaven to reveal Christ.

7. _____

Colosenses 4:5–6 GW

5 Be wise in the way you act toward those who are outside the Christian faith. Make the most of your opportunities.
6 Everything you say should be kind and well thought out so that you know how to answer everyone.

Contagious people don't wait for others to ask them about their faith. They live with their radar on, alert for divine opportunities.

Jesus' _____ was aligned with the Father, and his _____ were always searching for the lost.

Relational evangelism is built on _____, not _____.

Most people don't come to Christ because we won a _____, but because of a _____ that showed them Jesus' love.

Not all of us are great preachers, but we can all say ... Come and see.

It's not about manipulation, but about _____ true _____ that reflect the light of Christ. Evangelism must spring from a heart set _____ by Jesus.

Acts 4:20 NLT

We cannot stop telling about everything we have seen and heard.

The key to contagious evangelism is not technique, it's fire. The fire of first love.

When Christ is your _____, speaking about Him is inevitable and natural. The most powerful evangelism remains the most _____.

2 Corinthians 5:20 GW

Therefore, we are Christ's representatives, and through us God is calling you. We beg you on behalf of Christ to become reunited with God.

Reflection questions:

What has struck you most about the idea that evangelism is, above all, an invitation born of friendship, not a debate?

How can you cultivate a deeper relationship with Jesus so that your evangelism is authentic and contagious?

Who in your circle could you invite this week with a simple, pressure-free “Come and see”?

What personal obstacles do you face in reaching out to others, and how can you ask God for help to overcome them?

STYLES OF EVANGELIZATION

Recognizing your divine mark to impact lives.

Objective: That participants identify their natural style of evangelism, understanding that God uses different ways to draw people to Him. That they learn to recognize their “personal seal” when sharing Christ, and that they discover how to be effective and authentic in their witnessing, with freedom, sensitivity, and guidance from the Holy Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:4–7 NLT

4 There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but the same Spirit is the source of them all. 5 There are different kinds of service, but we serve the same Lord. 6 God works in different ways, but it is the same God who does the work in all of us. 7 A spiritual gift is given to each of us so we can help each other.

God does not call us to _____ methods, but to _____ Christ authentically.

God created us with distinct personalities and unique communication styles. The most effective evangelism is not forced, but flows naturally from who we are.

Bill Hybels

You can be a _____ Christian without _____ like anyone else. Evangelism isn't a _____; it's a natural _____ of Christ's life within you.

God gives different _____ and _____ so that each Christian can impact lives in _____ ways, all valuable and _____.

Romans 12:6–8 NLT

6 In his grace, God has given us different gifts for doing certain things well. So if God has given you the ability to prophesy, speak out with as much faith as God has given you. 7 If your gift is serving others, serve them well. If you are a teacher, teach well. 8 If your gift is to encourage others, be encouraging. If it is giving, give generously. If God has given you leadership ability, take the responsibility seriously. And if you have a gift for showing kindness to others, do it gladly.

Evangelism is a practical extension of the _____ God gives us, and each one has a unique “_____” to impact others.

Matthew 28:19–20 NLT

19 Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. 20 Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

The mission is clear, but _____ each person fulfills this commission can vary according to their _____ and gifts.

Your _____, _____, and _____ can become bridges of grace to reach others.

1. _____

Acts 2:36–37 NLT

36 “So let everyone in Israel know for certain that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, to be both Lord and Messiah!” 37 Peter’s words pierced their hearts, and they said to him and to the other apostles, “Brothers, what should we do?”

This style doesn’t mean being _____, but rather speaking the truth with _____, even if it’s uncomfortable.

Proverbs 27:6 NIV

Wounds from a friend can be trusted, but an enemy multiplies kisses.

Confrontation with love can hurt, but it is necessary when it comes from a heart _____ to the _____.

Some people need a loving confrontation to awaken them spiritually. God uses contagious Christians who aren't afraid to speak frankly.

The confrontation is not meant to _____, but to _____ in order to save.

2. _____

Acts 17:2–3 NLT

2 As was Paul's custom, he went to the synagogue service, and for three Sabbaths in a row he used the Scriptures to reason with the people. 3 He explained the prophecies and proved that the Messiah must suffer and rise from the dead. He said, "This Jesus I'm telling you about is the Messiah."

The truth, when well _____, can open doors where _____ only closes them.

Some people don't reject faith; they simply have honest _____. They need someone who not only has faith but also _____ for it.

You don't change the message—you simply find the _____ and most _____ way to express it to the listener.

God uses contagious Christians who help others see that faith is not only felt, but also thought.

Some people do not reject Jesus, they simply have not heard a logical presentation of his message.

1 Pedro 3:15 NIV

But in your hearts revere Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect

Your story can be the key that unlocks someone's heart.

Your testimony is not just to _____ your story, but to _____ the grace of God.

The power of testimony lies in its authenticity, not in its perfection.

4. _____

Relational evangelism is based on building genuine _____.

Live your faith _____, sharing daily life with people who don't yet know Jesus.

Luke 5:29; 31–32 NIV

29 Then Levi held a great banquet for Jesus at his house, and a large crowd of tax collectors and others were eating with them. 31 Jesus answered them, “It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. 32 I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.”

Friendship is the _____ through which the gospel crosses the heart.

Relationships are the most natural and powerful way to influence someone with the gospel.

2 Corinthians 3:2 NIV

You yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts, known and read by everyone.

_____ friendship preaches more powerfully than any sermon.

1 Thessalonians 2:8 NIV

so we cared for you. Because we loved you so much, we were delighted to share with you not only the gospel of God but our lives as well.

Genuine _____ can be the best evangelism, especially when _____ are no longer enough.

People don't always remember what you said, but they never forget how you made them feel.

Evangelism isn't a _____ formula. God has designed us with a _____ divine seal, and when we recognize it, we can share the message with _____ and _____. Whatever your style, the call is the same—to _____, to _____, and to _____ with the power of the Holy Spirit.

Those who have learned to work _____ the design God has given them are the most contagious.

There isn't just one _____ to evangelize, but many, because His love adapts to every _____.

1 Corinthians 9:22 NIV

To the weak I became weak, to win the weak. I have become all things to all people so that by all possible means I might save some.

Do not be afraid to speak clearly about God's love; the power is not in your words, but in the Spirit that works.

Reflection questions:

Which of the four evangelism styles do you feel most aligned with you, and why?

What personal story can you prepare to share as a testimony?

What fear or difficulty do you face in evangelizing, and how can you overcome it with God's help?

What small step can you take this week to reach out to someone with love and the gospel?
