

REVIEW THE STORY: NEHEMIAH HAS SELF CONTROL

The walls in Nehemiah's hometown of Jerusalem were destroyed and he went to go rebuild them.

While they were rebuilding, many people, like Sanballat, were laughing and stealing things from them.

Nehemiah could have gotten really angry, but he chose to let God deal with it. He had self-control.

Bible Point: When I am mad, God gives me Self-Control.

Memory Verse:

"Don't sin by letting anger control you. Don't let the sun go down while you are still angry.
